

An Informative Symposium for Diabetic Patients

Coinciding with World Diabetes Day, Community Service and Environmental Development Sector held an informative symposium for diabetic patients in the Comprehensive Clinic in cooperation with Internal Diseases Department headed by Prof. Hegazy Mohammed Hegazy and Endocrine Unit headed by Prof. Engy Abdel Wahhab. The symposium was lectured by assistant lecturers from Department of Internal Diseases. They tackled the most important symptoms of diabetes and its kinds that help to detect the disease early and to avoid its complications. They pointed out ways of prevention and hazards of diabetes.