

The 3rd Employment Forum at Faculty of Agriculture on April 4, 2019

On Wednesday, April 4th, Prof. Sherif Abdel Wanis, Dean of Faculty of Agriculture at Tanta University; Prof. Mohammed Al-Sayed, Vice Dean for Community Service and Environmental Development; Prof. As'ad Derbala, Vice Dean for Postgraduate Studies and Research; Prof. Essawy Kasem, Vice Dean for Education and Student Affairs; Dr. Amgad Al-Gammal, Manager of Entrepreneurship Unit; and members of the organizing committee received the delegations of the participant companies, owners of small-scale projects, the guests, Prof. Sayed Salem, Faculty of Science Vice Dean for Community Service and Environmental Development ; Prof. Yasser Konsowa, Manager of Faculty and Leadership Development Center (FLDC); leaders of Tanta University; Undersecretary of Ministry of Agriculture in Gharbia, Manager of Veterinary Medicine Directorate in Gharbia, Undersecretary of Ministry of Environment in Gharbia, and Ms. Reham Korrat from Small Microenterprise Development Body in Gharbia.

Prof. Amgad Al-Gammal, Manager of Entrepreneurship Unit, gave an inaugural speech in the Forum about the role played by entrepreneurs and how to be a successful one. Then a speech was delivered by Ms. Reham Korrat from Small and Micro Enterprise Development Body about the role of the Body, the facilitations it offers to youth to enable them start small-scale projects and how to get needed fund to begin any project. After that, some Faculty students' small enterprises were presented and the companies participating in the Forum offered job opportunities.