

The Symposium “Combating Intolerance and Stereotyping” at Faculty of Education

The symposium is under the title “Combating Intolerance, Stereotyping, Negativity, Stigmatization, Discrimination and Incitement based on Religion or Belief” was organized by Community Service and Environmental Development Sector at Faculty of Education on Tuesday, October 22, 2019 at the academic auditorium where a lecture was given by Dr. Abdel Rahman Amin Mohammed, Assistant Professor at Department of Curricula and Teaching Methodology at the Faculty. The lecture tackled the following points:

- ❖ What is stereotyping?
- ❖ The difference between generalization and acceptance of others.
- ❖ Divine religions and their attitude towards stereotyping and intolerance.

Rejecting stereotyping, the ideal model of accepting the other.
