

Transportation (TR)

Shuttle Services

Shuttle Services (Tanta University, Egypt)

Description:

Tanta University aims to reduce greenhouse gas emissions resulting from fossil fuels inside the university campus, therefore it takes many measures to achieve this goal, and these measures are reflected in many programs and policies, including the university's policy of transporting administrative and faculty staff by providing shuttle service for them.

Tanta University owns and operates 45 buses to transport administrative and faculty staff daily to and from its campus regularly.