

A Comprehensive Environmental Medical Convoy to Nawag Village and Adjacent Villages and Hamlets in Tanta District in Gharbia Governorate in February 2019

To affirm the effective role played by the University in community service and environmental development, Tanta University organized a comprehensive convoy to Nawag village and adjacent Villages and Hamlets in Tanta district in Gharbia governorate on March 9, 2019 under patronage of MG. Engr. Hesham Al-Said, Gharbia Governor; Prof. Magdi Sab', University President; and Prof. 'Emad 'Etman, University Vice President for Community Service and Environmental Development; in cooperation with Gharbia Governorate and related bodies in the governorate namely Tanta City Council, Education Directorate, Health Affairs Directorate, Social Solidarity Directorate, Veterinary Medicine Directorate, the General Authority for Literacy and Adult Education, and Environmental Affairs Agency.

The convoy was inaugurated by Prof. Ahmed Zaki Mansour, Representative of the University; Prof. Sahar Mohey Al-Din, Vice Dean of Faculty of Medicine for Community Service and Environmental Development; Prof. Hassan Rashid, Vice Dean of Faculty of Specific Education for Community Service and Environmental Development ; Prof. Mohammed Ma'moon Al-Sheikh, Vice Dean of Faculty of Dentistry for Community Service and Environmental Development; Mr. Ibrahim Fayed, Chairman of Tanta City Council; Mr. Mohammed Abdel Aziz Ghazi, General Manager of Environmental Projects at the University; and Mr. Maher Hosny Sa'd, General Manager of Community Service at the University. Medical examination was conducted to 1370 patients from the village.

33 doctors took part in the convoy and 28 cases were transferred to University Hospital to continue their treatment.